

Scavenger Hunt: Stephen Angulalik Name: _____

Go to the Kitikmeot Heritage Society (KHS) website and complete the following to learn more about the KHS and Steven Angulalik. (www.kitikmeotheritage.ca)

1. What are two ways that KHS promotes the history of the Kitikmeot region in Nunavut? (there are six ways listed)
2. What are two projects that the KHS is doing or has done that you might find interesting? (there are 11 projects listed) Select one of these projects and describe it. Be prepared to share this with your classmates.
3. The Introduction to Stephen Angulalik page describes the vastness of the Inuit Trade prior to the arrival of Europeans. Find these places on a map.
4. How and what did the Kitikmeot Inuit trade between regions prior to the arrival of Europeans? (See Inuit and Trade as well as the links at the top of this page)
5. After reading about Angulalik and his life write a 300 word biography. Incorporate his family and working life and how he became an independent fur trader with his own trading post? Write in your own words. (see Angulalik: Inuk Trader and the four links at the top of this page)
6. What were the names of Angulalik's wives? What do you think a man had to do or be in order to have more than one wife?
7. In the beginning of the 20th century, commercial whaling was no longer economical therefore the whalers switched to trading for furs. Which fur was popular in the Kitikmeot? How is this different from what was being traded in southern Canada?
8. Why was Angulalik's trading post different than others? What did he do that most operators didn't?
9. There are many people who played an important role in the fur trade industry in the Kitikmeot. Select one of the people listed below and learn about their lives. Be prepared to share their life and importance in the fur trade as well as their connection to Stephen Angulalik with your peers:
  - Christian Theodore Pedersen
  - Christian Klengenberg
  - Etna and Ikey Bolt
  - Patsy Klengenberg
  - Hugh Clarke
  - George Porter
  - Scotty Gall
  - Red Pedersen

When you are finished, find three people in your class who wrote about others. Your task is to learn about the lives of at least four of the major players in the fur trade industry.

10. What are two questions you would ask Stephen Angulalik if you had the chance?